The Comedy of

JOE CONKLIN and the CITY RHYTHM ORCHESTRA!

The Abington Police Foundation and St. Luke's School presents Joe Conklin and the City Rhythm Orchestra. We invite you to a show that blends the excitement of the Philadelphia sports experience with a mix of rockin' music, sidesplitting comedy and cutting satire...a spirited homage to the city's beloved teams and the psyche of their passionate fans. This performance not only celebrates local sports history but also serves as a fundraiser for the Abington Police Foundation and St. Luke's School, highlighting the community spirit.

The Abington Police Foundation's mission is focused on providing significant resources and support to the Abington Police Department. This support is crucial in assisting the department in its responsibilities to ensure the safety and security of all residents, visitors, and businesses within the township. St. Luke Catholic School is fundraising for a new roof on their upper school building and to help support technology for their students.

This night will only work with your generous sponsorship. The Abington Police Foundation kindly requests your support by becoming a sponsor (options outlined in the enclosed form.)

We are confident this fun event will be a success, however, we cannot do this without you. May we hear from you by March 5?

With sincere appreciation for your considered support,

Patrick Molloy
Abington Township Chief of Police

Audiences are taken on a nostalgic journey while Conklin celebrates the highs and lows that have defined the local sports scene over the decades, as only he can do! His song parodies, sketches and banter capture the frustration and jubilation that is the essence of our story, and his distinct impressions of famous sportscasters, athletes and politicians bring to life the people that have shaped it.

Entertaining, fun and sentimental all at the same time, the evening will undoubtedly spark memories of the kind of heartfelt family moments that unite Philly fans across generations.

Pete Spina directs the 8-piece City Rhythm Orchestra featuring a cast that includes family members John, Jim, Jackie and Casey Conklin, plus Tricia Gozzi, Debra Toscano, Steve Ritrovato and Rich Cox, all performing to the sound of the band's driving rhythm section and explosive horns. Directed by Vince Valentine.
