

CAMP WILLIAM PENN MUSEUM ANNOUNCES

SUMMER SCHEDULE FOR 2025

The CWP Museum, located at 1618 Willow Avenue, La Mott, PA 19027, will be open from June through October as per the schedule below and by reservation.

Use contact information below for personal reservations or questions.

June 21, from 12 to 4 pm Artifacts restored or had conservation work will be highlighted.

July 19, from 12 to 4 pm Learn about Camp William Penn and our community, Historic La Mott

August 16, from 1 to 4 pm Museum will be open in partnership with La Mott Citizens United Back to School event on the grounds of the La Mott Community Center.

September 20, from 10 to 3 pm Camp William Penn and Historic La Mott Day event honors the soldiers who trained at CWP as well as the founding fathers of this Historic Community. Visit a USCT encampment, medical demos, ammunition making demo, the CWP Museum, displays by local history-preserving organizations, and more!

Camp William Penn was the first and largest federal training site for colored soldiers in the Civil War. Camp William Penn was located in today's Historic La Mott.

"The fortunes of the whole race for generations to come are bound up in the success or failure of the third regiment of colored troops from the North. You are a spectacle for men and angels."
Frederick Douglass, July 18, 1863, at Camp William Penn, Cheltenham Hills, PA

Citizens for the Restoration of Historical La Mott,
1618 Willow Avenue, La Mott, PA 19027 (p) 215 885-2258 (email) pt@usct.org