

The Officers and Directors of the Old York Road Historical Society

Cordially Invite You to

A Reception

Celebrating the Publication of

A History of Early Glenside

A narrative history of the development of Glenside illustrated with images from the Society's collections

Sunday, March 15, 2026

2:00-4:00 p.m.

Memorial Hall

185 South Keswick Avenue, Glenside

The afternoon will include a book signing with author Thomas J. Wieckowski, refreshments, and an historical display of early Glenside memorabilia and photographs

There will be brief remarks at 3:00 p.m.

Admission for the general public is the purchase of a book for $25.
(Couples and family units need only purchase 1 book for entry).
Admission for Society members is free. Members may purchase one copy of the book for $20; additional copies are $25.